Off to Goslar!

A double world heritage invites you: Let yourself be carried away into the Middle Ages in the alleys of the old town, the Kaiserpfalz and the museums and experience more than 1000 years of mining development in the Rammelsberg. Goslar is history you can experience, but by no means dusty! Modern art of world renown, lively squares and shops, numerous cultural and cabaret events, also for children, festivals for young and old, sports activities from hang gliding to mountain biking and relaxation and action in the Harz mountains will make your holiday an experience.

The youth hostel is an impressive half-timbered building with contemporary furnishings and fittings, ideally situated between the old town and Rammelsberg mountain, so that even small feet can easily reach all the attractions.

Arrival by public transport

By train you reach the station in Goslar. From there you can walk (about 25 min.) or take the bus (line 803 to „Theresienhof“) to the youth hostel. Alternatively, you can book a bus for the transfer of persons and luggage via the Youth Hostel.

Arrival by car

Leave the A 7 highway at the Rhüden/Harz exit and then take the B 82 to Goslar.

Guests coming from Berlin or Magdeburg take the A 395 from Braunschweig towards Bad Harzburg and then to Goslar. In the city please follow the signs to the mining museum and then turn left from „Rammelsberger Straße“ to the youth hostel.
